Kwentuhan sa Plaza back for Imuseño kids

IMUS CITY, Cavite — After being stopped for almost two years due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Kwentuhan sa Plaza returned for Imuseño kids, Wednesday, March 9, 2022 at the historic Imus Plaza in Barangay Poblacion 1-C here.

The activity was a fun and good experience for around one hundred local kids who were gathered by the Imus City Parks and Historical Sites Administration Unit and Imus City Public Library. Imus City First Lady Jelyn Maliksi was the guest storyteller who read a book before kids aged 5 to 12 years old.

"Hangad po nating maisulong pa sa ating mga kabataan ang pagbabasa bilang isang mahalaga at masayang gawain para sa Batang Imuseños," Mrs. Maliksi said.

'Fuel price crisis could be as bad as Covid-19 Pandemic

The chairman of the House Committee on Social Services is calling for the formulation of a true-blue integrated approach to the worsening fuel price crisis.

This, as Quezon City 5th district Rep. Alfred Vargas expressed fears that the current fuel price woes would cause another "disruption" on the level of the Covid-19 pandemic. "The social and economic impact of the war in Ukraine is being felt worldwide. It could lead to another great disruption, on a scale that could be similar to the pandemic. In the midst of uncertainty, it is imperative that our government and other sectors work as one in securing better protection for vulnerable segments of our society," Vargas said in a statement over the weekend.

Russia invaded neighboring Ukraine on Feb. 24. Given Russia's status as top oil producer—and the sanctions from the west that it will be facing as a result of its act of aggression—the price of crude in the world market is expected to climb further in the coming months.

Local pump prices of fuel have predictably skyrocketed in the past few weeks, even as a whopping P12 per liter hike on diesel and P7 per liter hike on gasoline is expected to be implemented Tuesday, March 15.

"It is critical that the problem-solving approach to this impending national crisis be carried out in a whole-of-government, whole-of-nation approach, taking into consideration the statutory authorities of various governmental bodies—especially in the Executive Department and local government units (LGUs)—to create a rational, comprehensive, and integrated policy solution or a series of such actions," Vargas said.

Under the solon's proposed mutli-sectoral consultation, government should be represented by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), Department of Local and Interior Government (DILG), Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), Department of Energy (DOE), the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), and other concerned government agencies.

The goal of such a consultation is to "mitigate the impact" of rising oil and food prices by providing more social protection for vulnerable sectors.

Vargas said various sectors have proposed a host of solutions ranging from increasing the minimum wage to the suspension of excise taxes. But he reckoned that "no one solution is enough to fully or sufficiently address and encapsulate this multifactorial problem."

He also sought the inclusion of representatives of civil society and sectoral groups in crafting policy interventions.

"Policy solution-making should consider the voice of affected stakeholders and include the recommendations of civil society organizations, people's organizations, people's groups, the industry, and other members of the private sector espousing the common interests of their members," he said.

PGC kicks off Women's Month celebration

The Provincial Social Welfare and Development Office initiated the Women's Month Kick-off Activity on March 8, 2022 through Cavite Gender and Focal Point System. The event was attended by around a hundred employees of the Provincial Government of Cavite.

The short program started with a prayer led by Ms. Evelyn Reyes of Provincial Information Office, followed by the opening remarks delivered by Mr. Alvin S. Mojica, the Provincial Administrator for Community Affairs. He imparted different legislations enacted for the protection of women including RA 9710 or the Magna Carta of Women and stressed that women are empowered internationally, nationally and locally.

Ms. Myrna M. Sumaling, GFPS council member from the Provincial Planning and Development Office presented the GAD plan, budget and accomplishments. She encouraged everyone especially the members of the GFPS to participate in polishing the plans on Gender and Development for the benefit of all. Afterwards, Mr. Dominic Macalalag, Health Education and Promotion Officer from the Provincial Health Office talked about the upcoming Health and Wellness Activity that will be held at Ceremonial Hall on March 18, 2022. He enumerated the different services that will be offered on the event including Tetanus Toxoid and free first dose of HPV Vaccine, Oral Hygiene Kits, Pregnancy Kits, Family Planning Services, Nutritional Assessment, and Pharmaceutical Booth.

Mr. Angelito Salubong from PSWDO shared the other GAD Programs and Activities that will be conducted as part of the provincial celebration of Women's Month.

In closing, Ms. Maria Fe M. Satsatin, the GFPS TWG Chairperson and the OIC of HRM invited everyone to take part of the activities lined up for the month.

The 2022 Women's Month Celebration theme is "Agenda ng Kababaihan Tungo sa Kaunlaran" which highlights women empowerment and tenacity. (PICAD)

Lahat may gawaing pinag-abalahan,
Bawa't isa'y kilos sa dapat gampanan,
Kaya ang kolonya ay may kaayusan.
2. Ang tao ganyan din sa mga serbisyo,
Sa army at navy, sila ang sundalo,
Dahil sa ang lahat bahagi ng grupo,
Para silang langgam, may pakay na solo.
3. Datapwa't sa atin namang hanap-buhay,
Laluna at merong negosyo sa bahay,
Walang hati-hati pag kulang ang suhay,
May-ari'y janitor sa kanyang pagsikhay.
4. Sapagka't kung bawa't gawain may tao,
Ay baka malugi ang isang negosyo,
Hindi kakayanin ang ganyang epekto,
Kaya isang tao, maraming serbisyo.

Puhunang malaki ay di naman ganyan,

7. Hanap-buhay naman, di lang hanap-buhay,
Ito'y buong buhay ng ating lipunan,
Ang bawa't negosyo'y lilikha ng suhay,
Ang bawa't trabaho'y lilikha ng yaman.

and minimize the risks associated with the disaster, thus, ensuring their safety.

All employees on site took part in the earthquake drill and followed the necessary steps – duck, cover and hold. Full cooperation was observed as employees dropped on their knees, covered their heads or took cover under sturdy desks upon the signal of the siren and safely evacuated their offices. Proper accounting was also done as employees submitted a list of all employees who are present.

Since emergencies are inevitable and earthquake is natural, NSED serves as a reminder to always stay alert, prepared and to respond accordingly. (PICAD)

City Park administration staff gave souvenir toys to the young participants.

Mr. Edwin Malicsi, park administrator said, they limited the young audience just to a hundred and followed the national government's health protocols to ensure the safety of the participants.

The area was closed after the Cavite was placed under total lockdown in conjunction with the nationwide declaration of a pandemic in the country in March 2020.

Kwentuhan sa Plaza started at sundown on a humid Friday in 2016, wherein children gathered at the historic Imus City plaza next to the statue of local hero, Gen. Licerio Topacio, in front of the old municipal hall building and the picturesque Our Lady of the Pillar Cathedral

Local kids sat on the floor on crossed legs, as city public librarian Rose Roman, 57, hosted the book reading, storytelling and proper hygiene to all the guests

Kwentuhan sa Plaza, a storytelling project of the city library and the City Parks and Historical Sites, aims to instill values among children while nurturing a community with a penchant for reading.

Roman, a city librarian for 29 years, thought of the project one day as she was looking over the plaza from the lonely, dusty library that rarely had any visitors.

The plaza was revived and allowed for sightseeing by residents after the local government closed when the pandemic entered the country.

Roman remembers the first few story telling sessions with just about 20 kids listening and a budget of P25 per child for snacks—juice paired with so-called “mamon” (sponge cake).

The sunset storytelling habit began to be held every first Friday of the month and turned into a regular event that children looked forward to during the pre-pandemic period.

In a period of few months, the audience grew to 80 to 100 children. Some of them came from neighboring towns and cities that the local government had to provide monobloc chairs and a better sound system, said Roman.

Kwentuhan sa Plaza also attracted volunteer storytellers led by Mayor Emmanuel Maliksi and government employees, followed by schoolteachers, police officers, firefighters and members of non-governmental organizations. (Journalnewsonline/Dennis Abrina)
