MANILA – President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Sunday enjoined Filipinos to join hands in creating a more “humane, fair and progressive” society.

In his message on the commemoration of Araw ng Kagitingan (Day of Valor), Marcos reminded Filipinos to reflect on the sacrifices made by war heroes to protect and restore Philippines’ freedom.

“As we recollect the sacrifices of our forebears who fought long and hard to defend our nation’s freedom, let us also bear in mind that our actions today determine the future of our country, including the succeeding generations,” he said.

“Together, let us strive towards developing a more humane, fair and progressive society that allows our citizenry to relish their liberty and achieve their individual and collective aspirations,” he added.

Marcos called on Filipinos to “re-examine” the values and honor of our forebears

PAGLAGO AT PAGHINA

1. Tatlo itong sector ng ating lipunan,
Una'y pagsasaka sa bukid at linang,
Ikalawa'y sector nating industriyal,
At ikatlo'y service, sari-saring gampan.
2. Itong pagsasaka'y para sa pagkain,
Bigas, mais , gulay ay doon kukunin,
Mataas ang bilang ng farmer sa atin,
Maliit ang lupa, at kita'y kapos din.
3. Industriyal naman may likhang produkto,
At sariling gamit yaong likha dito,
Ang luwas kokonti nating Pilipino,
Tayo'y nahuhuli sa galaw ng mundo.
4. Itong service sector bigay ay serbisyo,
At alaga nito'y ang nais ng tao,
Restawran, sinehan, sasakyan, merkado,
Para sa local at dayuhang turismo.
5. Lumalago tayo sa dami ng luwas,
Humihina tayo pag tao'y umiwas
Sa gawaing bukid at sa aking watas
Nagtungo sa lunsod at yaman ang hanap.
6. Humihina tayo pag ang graduate natin
Hindi makakuha ng tamang gawain
At kahit na D.H. ay nais na kunin,
Kulang lagi tayo sa trabahong angkin.
7. Nagluluwas tayo ng ating produkto,
Mga raw material sa bansang modern,
Maliit ang kita sa gawaing ganito,
Mataas sana kung finished product ito.
8. Paglago'y mahirap pag bansang mayaman,
Tayo'y dinadaig kung may pagalingan,
Paghina'y palagi nating agam-agam,
Tayo'y sinisiklot nitong pamilihan.

Filipinos urged to strive...

by "speaking up against discrimination, extending help to those in need, and working towards a better future," adding that the legacy of our heroes and heroines came at a great and hefty cost.

He likewise urged the public to learn to make "wise and sound decisions" so that we may address our country's pressing problems with compassion and concern for others.

Marcos said the Philippines has faced numerous challenges that tested faith yet showed the world the "indomitable spirit" of every Filipino -- from the battles fought in the trenches of World War II to the struggles against insurgent forces.

He, however, said the country emerged as a nation that "stands tall and proud," guided by the principles of "justice, truth, and democracy."

"We have staunchly proven time and again that we are never the same after each adversity for we always rise to meet every challenge head-on with grit, grace and determination," he added.

Day of Valor celebrated every April 9, marks the annual commemoration of the Fall of Bataan on April 9, 1942, and the bravery shown by the Filipino and American soldiers against invading Japanese forces during World War II.

The date also commemorates the Bataan Death March, where exhausted Filipino and American prisoners of war (POW) were forced by their Japanese captors to walk some 112 kilometers from Mariveles, Bataan to Capas, Tarlac under the scorching sun with no food and water for days.

This year, Marcos declared April 10 as a non-working holiday in observance of Araw ng Kagitingan.

Incidentally, the country is also observing Philippine Veterans Week (PVW) which falls from April 5 to 12 this year.

The PVW's theme for this year is "Kagitingan ng mga Beterano, Pundasyon ng Nagkakaisang Pilipino."

Meanwhile, the Philippine Veterans Affairs Office (PVAO) on Sunday urged all Filipinos to observe "Araw ng Kagitingan" with a "grateful heart and a pressing yearning to honor our forefathers for all that they have sacrificed for us."

"Though Bataan fell on April 9, our veterans persisted, and for 93 days of unending barrage, they displayed an unconquerable spirit. That their bodies were tired and bloody, they fought the invading enemies with their heads unbowed," PVAO administrator Undersecretary Reynaldo Mapagu said in a statement.

As the nation commemorates this fateful day, he urged all Filipinos to continue to carry the legacy of "our forefathers and continue the courage they have upheld in their fight for freedom and liberty."

In a separate statement, Department of Budget and Management (DBM) Secretary Amenah Pangandaman enjoined Filipinos to continue to recognize and salute the heroic defenders of the country.

"Today and always, we owe them our profound gratitude and highest respect," she said.

She also enjoined Filipinos to remember that the first Day of Valor was a day when Filipinos stood ground and fought until the end.

"May we continue to honor the story of heroism and extreme sacrifice laid down 81 years ago by forging unity and solidarity with one another toward nation-building," she said.

House Speaker Martin Romualdez said Araw ng Kagitingan is a reminder that Filipinos will always fight on, move forward and prevail with unity.

"Today, as we commemorate Araw ng Kagitingan nationwide, we honor and recognize the gallantry of our fallen heroes, who willingly laid down their lives so that we can enjoy the blessings of freedom today," he said.

"As we look back into the dark day that we call the "Fall of Bataan," we must never forget the sacrifices of Filipino resistance fighters who stood up against the might of foreign invaders in World War II, which gave the rest of our nation the inspiration and strength to fight on," he added.

Romualdez said the country's bout with the Covid-19 pandemic is proof of the Filipinos' fortitude.

"We suffered, we fought and we prevailed," he said. "We will always prevail as long as we are united, and as long as we continue to draw our strength from the virtues of our heroes," he said.

"This day is a testament to Filipino courage and bravery, a fighting spirit that comes to the fore as we face adversity after adversity. This day reminds us of a priceless legacy: that the same courage and bravery our heroes displayed in the crucible of war--in the Fall of Bataan-- run in our blood, through our veins," he added.

Department of Budget and Management Secretary Amenah Pangandaman, meanwhile, enjoined Filipinos to continue to recognize and salute the heroic defenders of the country.

"Today and always, we owe them our profound gratitude and highest respect," she said in a statement.

"May we continue to honor the story of heroism and extreme sacrifice laid down 81 years ago by forging unity and solidarity with one another toward nation-building." (with reports from Priam F. Nepomuceno/Zaldy De Layola/PNA) to introduce smart agricultural technologies that will aid in improving the communities' access to herbal plants and other vegetable crops,” he said in a statement.

Sicat said the vertical tower hydroponics system is a water-efficient and space-saving technology that offers a spectrum of possibilities for the beneficiaries.

“It could work wonders towards food security because of the soilless and water recirculating principle that makes the vertical garden good news for both the table and the planet,” he said.

Likewise, he said that hydroponics technology will eliminate the presence of microorganisms and heavy metals, which are crucial factors in the production of herbal medicines and other crops.

To ensure the sustainability of the project, the DOST has organized technology training on the operation and maintenance of the vertical hydroponics system.

The project was funded under the DOST-III Expanded Implementation of Community Empowerment through Science and Technology

'If may extra ka, donate ka din': Cayetano hinikayat ang mga netizen na tumulong sa nangangailangan

Okay din naman maging mapagkawangawa at mabait sa kapwa. I-try nating lahat minsan.

Ito ang naging magandang tugon ni Senator Alan Peter Cayetano sa mga netizen na ginamit ang kanyang Facebook post bilang pagkakataon para makapagbiro tungkol sa panukalang Sampung Libong Pag-asa o 10K Ayuda Bill niya.

Kanyaw ng isang commenter, hindi pa raw nakakalimutan ng mga tao ang pangako umano ni Cayetano noong Halalan 2022 na magpamigay ng P10,000 kada pamilya. Naging laganap kasi noong nakaraang taon ang maling akala na dole-out ang initiative na ito ng senador.

Bwelta ng senador, maging siya ay naghihintay din sa 10K Ayuda dahil ito ay isang legislative measure at isang panawagan na naging popular noong kasagsagan ng COVID-19 pandemic.

"That's why we're pushing it sa Senate! Government has already admitted that they have the money but they don't want to distribute it like Bayanihan 1," ani Cayetano, na tinutukoy ang unang pandemic aid bill ng Duterte administration na ipinasa noong panahon niya bilang House Speaker.

Dagdag pa niya, habang hindi pa natatalakay ng Senado ang Sampung Libong Pag-asa bill ay ginagawa na niya ang kanyang makakaya upang tumulong sa mga nais magtayo o magpalago ng maliit na negosyo sa pamamagitan ng pagbibigay ng P10,000 pangpuhunan sa mga beneficiary ng kanyang Sampung Libong Pag-asa program.

Hinikayat din ni Cayetano ang naturang commenter na mag-ambag na lang at tumulong sa kapwa sa abot ng kanyang makakaya, katulad ng paulit-ulit na apela ng senador sa mga manonood ng kanyang Sampung Libong Pag-asa program sa Facebook.

"If may extra ka, try it, donate ka din sa mga nangangailangan," wika ng senador.

Nag-post ng selfie si Cayetano noong March 24 sa kanyang Facebook page kung saan kasama niya si GMA Sparkle actress Shuvee Etrata. Sa kanyang photo caption, pinuri ng senador ang mga kabataan na "humble, hardworking, kind, respectful, mindful and eager to learn." "Maraming comments and criticism about young people, about the next generation. Then you meet great examples of their generation," aniya.

"Let's learn from them. Huwag kaya tayo nega? Smile lang," dagdag ng senador. PR

MPTC UNIT, UMAASA SA GO-SIGNAL PARA SA PLANONG CAVITE-BATANGAS EXPRESSWAY

Umaasa ang planong Cavite-Batangas Metro Pacific Tollways Expressway sa kabila ng Corp. (MPTC) na aberya sa alignment sa ma-aprubahan ang isa pang kaparehas na

proyekto ng San Miguel Corp. (SMC)

Ginawaran ang MPTC ng original proponent status para sa P25.24-bilyong piso na Cavite-Tagaytay-Batangas Expressway (CTBEx) noong 2018. Balak ng proyekto maging isang alternatibong ruta para sa Aguinaldo Highway at Sta. Rosa-Tagaytay Road, dalawa sa daanang dinadagsa ng trapiko tuwing peak periods at weekends.

Ayon kay Raul Ignacio, pangulo at general manager ng MPTC unit MPT South Management Corp., may dayalogo na sila kasama ang Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) ukol sa balak na proyekto at umaasang maibibigay na ang plano sa National Economic and Development Authority para sa pagsusuri.

S a m a n t a l a , napagkasunduan ng Cavite gov't at ng SMC ang tollway concession agreement para sa CBEx. Maging sa Batangas gov' ay naglagda rin ang SMC ng joint-venture agreement para sa kadugtong na Nasugbu-Bauan Expressway.

Inaalar ngayon ng DPWH ang dalawang nasabing plano dahil sa overlaps ng mga alignments nito. Ayon kay Miguel Bonoan, DPWH secretary, inaalam at sinusolusyunan na nila ang mga problema at aberya upang makapagsimula na ng konstruksyon ang dalawang nasabing proyekto. (go cavite)
