The Office of the Provincial Agriculturist (OPA) headed by its Officer-in-Charge, Engr. Anna Pamela Nova-Cruz, through the Fishery Extension section led by Mr. Eldrich H. Caparas, Aquaculturist II, distributed a total of 5,000 freshwater prawns (ulang) to 22 fisherfolk beneficiaries in Cavite on July 18, 2025, at the OPA Administrative Lobby in Trece Martires, City.

To ensure the proper handling and cultivation of the prawns, Ms. Sheryl Luna, Aquaculturist II led a brief orientation on freshwater prawn culture and stocking techniques, equipping the recipients with basic knowledge on freshwater prawn farming.

In her closing message, Engr. Nova-Cruz encouraged the fisherfolks to reach out to their office whenever they need guidance. She assured everyone that the OPA team is always ready to provide support and assistance in their aquaculture journey.

The initiative reflects the province's commitment to empowering local fisherfolk and promoting sustainable aquaculture practices.

KONSTRUKSYON SA BATAAN-CAVITE BRIDGE SISIMULAN NA; MARCOS, PINUNA ANG ISABELA BRIDGE

Ayon sa ika-apat na State of the Nation Address ni Pangulong Ferdinand Marcos Jr., sisimulan na ngayong taon ang konstruksyon ng Bataan-Cavite bridge.

Ayon sa kaniya, magsisilbi ito bilang isang tulay na tutulong pagaanin ang traffic congestion sa Metro Manila at paikasin ang travel time mula Southern Luzon hanggang sa norte, simula sa lugar ng Mariveles sa Bataan at Naic sa Cavite.

Pinuna rin ni Marcos na hindi niya itotolerate ang kahit anong corruption sa imprastraktura upang maiwasan ang pag-ulit ng nangyari sa gumuhong Cabagan-Santa Maria Isabela bridge.

Taong 2014 pa ito ginawa ngunit nitong Pebrero 2025 lang natapos, at gumuho rin di nagtagal.

"Ang mahal, ang tagal ginawa, ang bilis nasira," sabi ni Marcos.

UGIT SA GOBYERNO

1. Ang tanging alam kong ugit sa gobyerno,

Ang nais ng tao iyon ang gawin mo,
Alamin ang bilang sa mga porsiyento,
Nitong mamamayan sa ating publiko.

2. Apat na bahagdan nitong mamamayan,
Sila ang kokonti nating mayayaman,
Labing-anim naman ng ating bahagdan,
Sila ang middle-class nitong ating bayan.

3. Walumpung porsiyento itong mahihirap,
Kalahati nito sa hirap ay sagad,
Ganyan ang lipunan nitong Piliinas,
Marami ang dukha na hanap ay lingap.

4. May labis na yaman hangad ay payapa,
Merong kaayusan sa balat ng lupa,
Pagka't pag magulo sila'y may hinala,
Sila'y papaslangin nitong mga dukha.

5. Nais ng middle-class na ang ekonomiya,
Palaging malakas at merong ganansya,
Di sila panatag kung ang bayan nila,
Masama ang ugit, mahina ang benta.

6. Nais ng mahirap laging may pagkain,
Pati anak nila palaging kupkupon
Ng ating gobyerno saka pag-aralin
Sa mababang antas ng mga gugulin.

7. Ang mga mayamang nais ay payapa
Dapat na tumulong sa maraming dukha,
Tao ng middle-class dapat mag-adhika
Ng gayon ding tulong kahit na mababa.

8. Sapagka't ang ugit magiging madali
Kapag sama-sama sa ganyang punyagi,
Dapat alagaan ang tao palagi,
Dapat sa ugit mo kasama ang ngiti.

Starting Small, Reaching Big

"It was worthwhile," said 64-year-old Nestor Barraca Sr. from San Jose, Batangas, recalling his journey before he attained a thriving junkshop business.

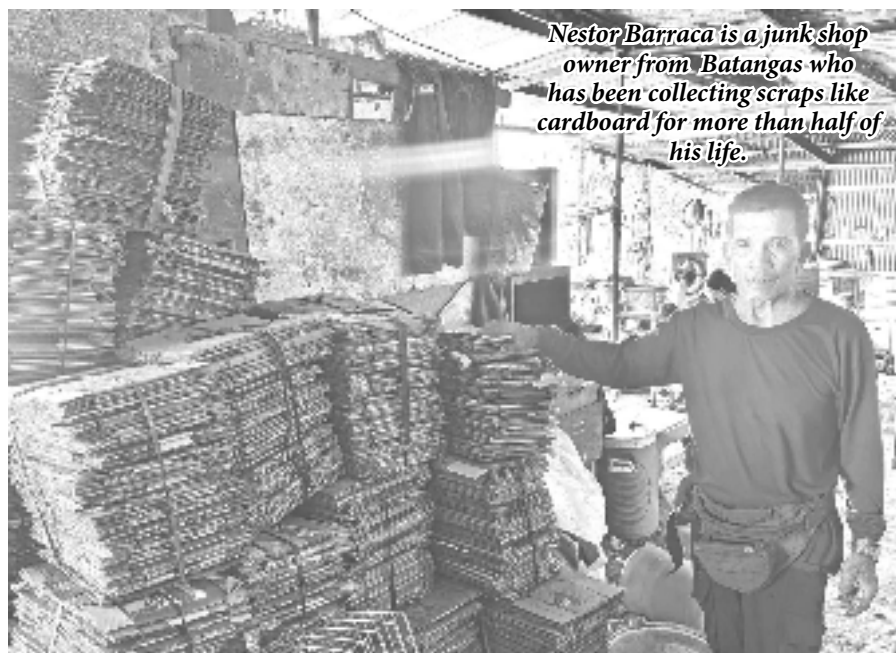

With nothing but a bicycle and sheer determination, Nestor began collecting scraps in 1982.

Nestor, originally from Quezon, was encouraged by his cousin to work at a sari-sari store in Batangas at 17. When he turned 19, he found a job as a dishwasher in a canteen, where he met his wife.

When their first child was born, he worked in a rice field, cutting rice stalks and clearing grass, earning PHP 75.00 a day under the scorching sun. Later on, as their family grew, he decided to work in a restaurant to make ends meet. He got himself a bicycle to ease the challenge of commuting.

Eventually, during his daily bike rides, he began going door-to-door to collect bottles, aware that his salary from the restaurant was insufficient. After seeing its potential, he quit his job to focus on this new venture.

From his income, he added a sidecar to his bike. By 1988, he had acquired a motorcycle with a sidecar, and by 2000, he managed to expand into five bikes with a sidecar.

Nestor Barraca is a junk shop owner from Batangas who has been collecting scraps like cardboard for more than half of his life.

However, it is not all sunshine and butterflies; he still remembers being imprisoned for a day after unknowingly buying stolen scraps; fortunately, the true culprits were eventually caught.

At one point, he faced financial losses due to a sudden drop in the price of scraps. But instead of sulking, he doubled his efforts to recover the losses and keep his business going.

He began with a capital of PHP 500.00 and has now increased it to PHP 400,000.00. When his capital was insufficient, he would acquire a loan from CARD SME Bank, a thrift bank he became a client of in 2013.

He accepts bottles, cardboard, steel, aluminum, copper, plastic, tin cans, and roof covers.

"I want all of us in the family to succeed; therefore, I teach my relatives all my knowledge in handling this business so that we can all succeed together," he said.

Currently, all his siblings run their junk shops. His child, who also owns a junk shop, occasionally assists him in his business.

Aside from the generated income, his business made a significant contribution to reducing plastic and other materials that are often discarded, adding to environmental harm and pollution. By reusing and recycling the materials considered waste by many, Nestor helps minimize the energy consumption needed to produce new products, helping to combat climate change.

With financial support from CARD SME Bank, coupled with hard work, Nestor Barraca managed to continue collecting scraps while contributing to various Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), such as responsible consumption and production, life on land, life below water, and climate action.

His advice to others who started with a dream of having a business is not to be afraid of making a step, "Take that small step, and eventually, as you look back, you will find yourself a step closer to your dreams," he concluded.
